

Song of the Stones

Kaggi Valentine

Sing a song of the Stones
Sing a song of my bones
Sing a song of the Stones
Sing a song of my bones

Sing a song of the Air
Sing a song of my breath
Sing a song for each birth
And I'm singing up the Spirit at death

Sing a song of the mountains and the valleys
Sing a song of the deserts and the plains
Sing a song of the wind as it's blowing
And the blessings that come with the rain

Sing a song of the longing between lovers
Sing a song of the Spirit of the Tribes
Sing a song for my sisters and my brothers
As my heart opens wide

Sing a song of the Water
Sing a song of my blood
Sing a song of the rivers
Sing a song of the floods

Sing a song of the Fire
Spirit song soars higher
Ancient ways come today
Ancient ways come today

Sing a song of the caves and the caverns
Sing a song from the vastness of my womb
Sing a song of the cycles of the seasons
And the tidal pull of the Moon

Sing a song of a time long forgotten
Sing a song of a time yet to come
Sing a song of the cycles of lifetimes
Our bloodlines spiral on

Sing a song of the Earth
Sing a song of my birth
My path is strong and I belong
MY PATH IS STRONG AND I BELONG

Sing a song of the Stones
Sing a song my bones
Sing the ancient ways home
Sing the ancient ways home
You are never alone
You are never alone

Sing a song of the thunder and the lightning
Sing a song of the ocean and the seas
Sing a song of the Sun as it's shining
Sing a song that sets you free

(or... WE are never alone x2)
